RE: ITALY - Communist Party Schools.

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

The following information was obtained from an Italian businessman who recently visited Austria. According to Source 10/829, this information was obtained in early May 1949 from an Italian Intelligence Officer whose position is a member of the Italian Communist Party. Evaluation of Source is (Primary reliability) of Information: "P" (possibly true).

The Italian Communist Party has organized a great many Party schools throughout Italy. Following is a small list of some of the schools which at present are of particular interest to Italian Intelligence.

- a) Milan - Three (3) Party Central Schools (Centrali di Partito) One (1) 1- for males, two (2) are for females. The courses last three (3) years. One of these schools is located in a villa near S. SIMO on the Corso Montecrossa.
- b) Bologna - National School "Alessandro Kerubini" located at Via Dante, 15.
- c) Brescia - Villa - Two (2) "Madrina" Seminary Schools ("Conventi - Scuole delle Bimacette"). Each school has over 100 students. The courses last two (2) years. One school, located on Viale Sante Vincenz in Leggio, Brescia officially teaches mechanics. The other, located between the towns of Canali and Almatia, in the Villa Rivallella, officially teaches agriculture. Both schools are subsidized by the Italian Ministries of Education and Labor with a sum of 6000 Lire ($ 10) per month allocated for each student. Entrance to these schools is governed by competitive examinations and all the candidates' papers are handled by the local communal authorities who are well known Communists. In fact,
